Thébault Consulting selects the best interpreters with rigorous training from the most selective universities in France and throughout the world. They work exclusively as interpreters and their major strengths are the experience, language skills, and expertise that have made them top-level professionals with rare skills. The interpreters at Thébault Consulting are very mobile and often have two native languages. They master all techniques, including working in booths, and during round tables and conferences (consecutive and whispered) and know how to meet the requirements of the largest multinational corporations and European organizations.

CONFIDENTIALITY

All of our interpreters are bound by professional secrecy. We can also sign more specific and detailed confidentiality agreements for each assignment.

RUSH ORDERS

The interpreters we have selected are responsible and available, so you need not hesitate to contact us for any rush orders you may have for business meetings, negotiations, or interviews. We can also set up a fixed schedule with one interpreter, who will translate all of your events, thereby ensuring quality and consistency throughout your projects.

SIMULTANEOUS INTERPRETING EQUIPMENT RENTAL

Thébault Consulting provides rentals of the best equipment using the latest technology.

Our installation team takes care of setting up and taking down all equipment.
